2. In the King George's Medical University Act, 2002 hereinafter referred to, as the Principal Act, for the words “King George's Medical University” wherever occurring including heading and long title, the words “Chhatrapati Shahuji Maharaj Medical University, Uttar Pradesh” shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Various classes of the people of the State were demanding to change the name of "King George’s Medical University" by "Chhatrapati Shahuji Maharaj Medical University, Uttar Pradesh". In the support of the said demand it has been argued that Chhatrapati Shahuji Maharaj had been a renowned and eminent personality of the Indian society, therefore if the Medical University shall be re-named by the Chhatrapati Shahuji Maharaj, he will be glorified. Besides the name of King George is the name of a foreign ruler who ruled over India, therefore if the name of the said Medical University is continued in the name of King George, it hurts the Indian feelings and reflect the mentality of slavery. It has, therefore been decided to amend the King George’s Medical University, Act, 2002 to change the name of "King George’s Medical University, Lucknow" by the "Chhatrapati Shahuji Maharaj Medical University, Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow".

The King George’s Medical University (Second Amendment) Bill, 2007 is introduced accordingly.

By order,

P.V. KUSHWAHA,

Sachiv.
