Discontinuation of Circulation of hard copies of Parliamentary papers

Members are informed that in view of the prevailing situation of COVID - 19 pandemic and in order to check the spread of infection which may occur due to handling of physical papers, it has been decided to discontinue the circulation of hard copies of Parliamentary papers such as the List of Business, Bulletin Part-I, Ordinances, Government and Private Members' Bills and papers related thereto, Amendments to Bills etc. However, the copies of these papers will be circulated to Members electronically. Members may carry print-outs of the same for their use. Arrangements have already been made to keep a few hard copies of the Parliamentary papers in the Inner Lobby of the Lok Sabha Chamber for the use of Members.

Kind Cooperation of Members is solicited.

Tabling of Notices Under Rule 377

It has been observed that sometimes notices tabled by Hon'ble Members under Rule 377 of Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha are not in line with the provisions of the Rule stipulated for the purpose.

The prominent inconsistencies identified in such notices and the rule position in this regard are as follows:-

(1) Notices containing more than one issue which is prohibited under Rule 377A(iv).

Members are requested to give notice on any one issue within the jurisdiction of the Union Government. If a notice contains more than one issue, the first issue appearing in the notice shall be taken up for examination and the subsequent issue(s) will not be taken into consideration.

(2) Laying a matter in the House which is different from the approved text.

In this regard, it is stated that Rule 377C(2) of Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha states that "Only the text approved by the Speaker shall go on record." Hence, whenever a Member is permitted to lay a matter under Rule 377 in the House, only the approved text shall go on record even though the member has actually laid a different matter in the House.

(3) Not providing full text of the matter in the notice or merely mentioning on the body of the notice that the text shall be provided later causes delays in examination/processing of such notices.

In this regard, it is stated that Rule 377 requires a member to specify clearly and precisely the text of the matter to be raised. Therefore, whenever a notice is not accompanied by text of the matter intended to be raised or contains only a few words, the notice shall not be taken up for examination/processing.

(4) Giving notice on one subject and later requesting for change of the subject of the notice on the day on which the notice is listed in the House.

Members are informed that once the notice on a subject submitted under Rule 377 has been listed in the House on a particular day, the request to change the text of the notice shall not be entertained.

(5) Submitting notice already raised/laid in the same session.

Rule 377A (ii) states that in order that a notice may be admissible it shall inter alia satisfy the following condition:-

"it shall not relate to a matter which has been discussed in the same session or which is substantially identical to the matter already raised by a member under this rule during the session."

Members are requested not to give notice on a subject already raised/laid by them in the House in the same session. If a notice is repeated during the same session, it shall not be permitted to be raised/laid and the notice shall get lapsed.

Kind cooperation of Members is solicited.
