FELICITATIONS BY THE SPEAKER

HON. SPEAKER: I am very happy to inform the House that Indian Hockey team has won Bronze Medal for India after a long gap of 41 years. Further, Miss. Lovlina Borgohain has also won Bronze Medal in Olympic Games in welterweight category of Women Boxing. I, on my own behalf and on behalf of the entire House, extend our hearty congratulations to Indian Hockey team and Miss Lovelina for this historic success.

India has got this Olympic Medal for hockey after a period of more than four decades. There is joyous and festive atmosphere in the entire country for this remarkable achievement of Indian Hockey team under the captaincy of Shri Manpreet Singh. The entire nation is celebrating this victory. This win will prove to be a milestone for Indian hockey. I, on behalf of the House, congratulate each and every player of our hockey team.

Hon. Members, I am equally happy that our daughters have also, so far won three medals for India in Tokyo Olympics. Our women players have not only done our country proud by displaying their determination, grit and dedication, but have also become an inspiration for millions of youth across the globe. Today this entire House felicitates and congratulates our daughters, symbol of women power. The women power has earned laurels to India and have made the nation feel proud of them on several occasions by proving their mettle in sports as well as in various other fields. The House also appreciates all those talented players of the country who have given excellent performance in their respective events. The House salutes their grit, determination and courage shown by them and wish them best of luck for a bright future.

OBSERVATION BY THE SPEAKER

HON. SPEAKER: Hon. Members, this is Question Hour and important subjects are being discussed. Through Question Hour, you hold government accountable to people. You people are coming to the well of the House and raising slogans. This is not in consonance with parliamentary conventions. The people of the country want Parliament to function according to parliamentary conventions and rules. But the way you people are conducting yourselves is not proper.
