Ballot Results of Notices of Questions on Lok Sabha Website

Members are informed that Ballot results of Notices of Questions (both Starred and Unstarred) are available on the Lok Sabha website. Since the information has been put under restricted circulation, a login page has been created for the purpose which can be accessed through the following path:

loksabha.nic.in → Questions → Ballot List

Guidelines to use this facility:

For the convenience of the Members, a dropdown list of names of Members participating in the Ballot has been created against the 'User id' box. Members may just click in the box and select their names as 'User id'. For the Password, the IC number of the Members has been preset in three digits. If the IC number of a Member is in single or the double digit, Zero (0) digit is accordingly required to be prefixed to make up the total of three. For example, if the IC number is '1' or '11', the same is required to be entered as '001' or '011' respectively as Password. Finally, a randomly generated captcha code has to be entered before the 'Submit' command is given to access the desired information.

Hard copies of Ballot results are also available in the Parliamentary Notice Office (PNO) of Lok Sabha.

Notices of Questions

Attention of the Members is invited to the following paragraph in the “Handbook for Members (Sixteenth Edition, 2014)”:-

“10(2) (xii) Notices of questions should be clear, self-contained and complete. Questions which are illegibly hand written are liable to be returned to the members. Proper names wherever occurring in the text of questions may be written in block letters.”

Sometimes notices of questions tabled by the Members are illegibly written or typed/handwritten on a separate sheet of paper and stapled/pasted on the prescribed/printed form. Such notices which are not in order are returned to the Members.

Members are, therefore, requested kindly to have the notices typed or handwritten legibly on the printed proforma itself. Every notice of question which is tabled on the printed form should be signed in ink by the Member. Members are requested kindly to indicate their names in CAPITAL LETTERS and the IC Number at appropriate place in the notices tabled by them.

Question Branch

Notice Period and Number of Questions

Members are informed that in accordance with Rule 33 of 'Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha' fifteen clear days have been prescribed for tabling notices of Questions. Further, according to latest Direction by the Speaker, Lok Sabha, a Member is permitted to table not more than five notices of Questions, for a given date. Members are requested to indicate the Order of Preference at the appropriate place, in the Question proforma including online notices.

Members are requested not to table more than 5 notices, for a particular date.

No.7413

Question Branch

Identical Notices of Questions

Members are informed that as per Parliamentary convention developed over the years, identical questions are disallowed. It has also been observed that sometimes Members raise two or more different and unrelated subjects, involving more than one Ministry/Department in one notice of question. This causes administrative inconvenience to the Ministry/Department. Accordingly, Members are requested to address their notices of questions appropriately to one Ministry/Department only.

Addressing of Notices of Questions - “Demarcation of Responsibilities in Government of India”

At times, notices of questions tabled by the Members are addressed to Ministers who are not concerned with the subject-matter thereof. This necessitates transfer of questions from one Ministry to another causing avoidable inconvenience to the Members themselves. They may, therefore, address the notices of questions to the Ministers who are responsible for their subject-matter. For this purpose, the Members may refer to the publication “Demarcation of Responsibilities in Government of India” available on the Lok Sabha Website which is accessible through the following path:

loksabha.nic.in → Questions → Home → Demarcation of Responsibilities in Government of India

It indicates the subjects for which the various Ministers are responsible for answering questions in Lok Sabha.
