Process to submit notice and procedure for raising matters of Urgent Public Importance during 'Zero Hour'

Hon'ble members are informed that an e-portal has been put in place to facilitate the members to submit their notices online to raise the Matters of Urgent Public Importance during 'Zero Hour'. Members can also physically hand over the notices of 'Zero Hour' for which printed form is available in the Parliamentary Notice Office. The following procedure for raising matters of Urgent Public Importance during 'Zero Hour' shall be followed: -

- (i) Notices may be given either through printed form at Parliamentary Notice Office or online by the members from 1000 hours to 1800 hours on the day prior to the day/date on which the members desire to raise their matters in the House.
- (ii) The notices received after 1800 hours shall be treated as time-barred.
- (iii) Twenty matters as per their priority in the ballot may be allowed to be raised on a day. However, 4-5 notices over and above these twenty matters of national/international importance could also be tabled on the same day morning on which the matter is sought to be raised in the House, for which no ballot would be held and may be allowed on the basis of their importance and that too only at the discretion of Hon'ble Speaker.
- (iv) The order in which the matters will be raised, shall be decided by the Hon'ble Speaker at his discretion.

- (v) A matter proposed to be raised should be under the jurisdiction of the Government of India only so that it would be easier for the Minister concerned to respond to it, in case she/he desires to do so.
- (vi) Matter proposed to be raised shall not contain any statement making allegations.
2. Notices for Monday or first working day of a week may be given on Friday or last working day of the previous week between 1000 hours and 1800 hours. Members who desire to raise matters of urgent public importance during Zero Hour on 29.11.2021 may submit their notices on 26.11.2021, i.e. Friday between 1000 hours and 1800 hours.

Kind cooperation of Hon'ble members is solicited.

No. 3380Editorial Branch*Correction of Speeches by Members

As a measure of safety in view of the prevailing COVID-19 pandemic, it has been decided to do away with the practice of circulation of computerized copy of every speech delivered or questions asked by Members on the floor of the House and answers given thereto for confirmation and correction of inaccuracies, if any, which might have occurred in the process of reporting. Now, for this purpose, Members can access their speeches from Lok Sabha Website <http://loksabha.nic.in>, under "Uncorrected Debates" of a particular day and print them for making legible corrections in ink, if any, and then send the signed scanned copy of the same to the Editorial Branch by email at : editorial.ls@sansad.nic.in.

As per rules, the following may please be kept in view that only minor corrections, namely, those in respect of grammatical errors, misreporting of quotations, figures, names etc. are permissible. Improvement of literary form or altering substance by additions, copious substitution or deletions will not be admissible. Hon. Members including Hon. Ministers are, therefore, requested to make only the said permissible corrections to ensure their correct incorporation in the final edited version of Debates. Please ensure that the proposed corrections are legible.

Kind co-operation of the Hon'ble Members is solicited.

No. 3381Editorial Branch*Permission for Reproduction of Material from Lok Sabha Debates

Kind attention of Hon. Members is invited to Rule 379 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha which, inter alia, states that full report of the proceedings of the House would be published under the directions of the Speaker. Similarly, Rule 382 (1) provides that the Speaker may authorize printing, publication, distribution and sale of any paper, document or report in connection with the business of the House. The copyright of Lok Sabha Debates vests in the Hon. Speaker. As such permission of Hon. Speaker is required for reproduction of any material from the Lok Sabha Debates under the Copyright Act.

Hon. Members are requested that they may seek prior permission of the Hon. Speaker whenever they intend to publish any material from the Lok Sabha Debates. Editorial Branch of the Secretariat processes the cases relating to the grant of permission for reproduction of material from Lok Sabha Debates.

Kind co-operation of the Hon. Members is solicited.

No. 3410Parliament Museum and Archives*Parliament Museum*Re-opening of the Parliament Museum for Members of Parliament

Members of Parliament are informed that the Parliament Museum is Re-opened for the Members and their Families by the Orders of the Competent Authority, Lok Sabha.

The hi-tech Parliament Museum depicts the continuum of India's rich democratic and cultural heritage. The story of various stages of our freedom movement, independence and of becoming a Sovereign Republic, is narrated with the help of walk-through period settings, with sound-light-video-synchronization, large screen interactive computer multi-media and immersive visualization with multi-screen panoramic projection, virtual reality and animatronics. The Museum is equipped with a Resource Centre with a fully computerized textual and visual information bank. The Museum binds us with our historic past and is a tribute to the efforts and sacrifices of our freedom fighters and nation-builders.

Members are requested to make it convenient to visit the Museum with their families. The Museum, which is located in Hall G-118 (Ground Floor), Parliament Library Building, is open from Monday (during Session period only for Members), otherwise, from Tuesday to Saturday (11:00 AM to 5:00 PM). Members may please contact Telephone Nos. 011-23035318, 011-23035325, 011-23035326 for further assistance.
