$13. Observation by the Deputy Speaker

The Deputy Speaker made the following observation:-

"Hon'ble Members, before we take up the Statutory Resolution and the Bill listed at Sl. Nos. 13 and 14 respectively in today's List of Business together for combined discussion, Hon'ble Members would recall that during the combined discussion on the Statutory Resolution and the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (Second Amendment) Bill, 2018 yesterday, Shri Mallikarjun Kharge raised a point that "after the Minister introduces the Bill and speaks, it is the prerogative of the opposition party to initiate the discussion. This is a wrong precedent. It is my request that it should not be clubbed like this". Shri Kharge also submitted that "it is the right of the main opposition party to initiate the discussion. We are not given that opportunity and Members from other parties have been allowed to speak in between. It is not a good thing."

In this regard, I would like to inform the House that the subject matter of the Statutory Resolution for disapproval of the Ordinance and the Ordinance replacing Bill is similar in nature. Therefore, it would not be appropriate to discuss both the items separately.

Accordingly, as per well-established practice, the Statutory Resolution seeking disapproval of the Ordinance and the Bill seeking to replace the Ordinance are discussed together to save the time of the House. The practice of listing both the items for combined discussion has stood the test of the time and therefore does not seem to require any change.

The procedure being followed in such cases is that first, the Member in whose name the Statutory Resolution is listed, moves the Resolution and, thereafter, the Minister-in-charge of the Bill moves the motion for consideration of the Bill and speaks. After the speech of the Minister, mover of the Statutory Resolution is allowed to speak on the Ordinance as well as the Bill because he cannot be given second chance to speak on the Bill separately. After the speech of the mover of the Statutory Resolution, Members from various parties are called to speak as usual on the basis of party strength."
