Payment of Salary/TA/DA to Members during Inter-Session Period

The e-payment system has been started in Lok Sabha Secretariat w.e.f. 6th April, 2017 and major payment of Salary/TA/DA is being made through e-payment system. However, some payments are still being made through cheques. These cheques of members are kept at the Cheque Counter in Parliamentary Notice Office for collection by them, or are sent to their Bankers, Local/permanent addresses, as per their instructions.

2. During inter-session period, Salary/TA/DA cheques of members are disbursed as under:-

- (i) sent to their Bankers, if so desired; or
- (ii) dispatched to their local/permanent addresses according to Members' specific instructions in this behalf; or
- (iii) kept at the Cheque Counter in Parliamentary Notice Office in the absence of any specific instructions.

3. When it is found that the cheques kept at the Counter in Parliamentary Notice Office, mentioned at (2) (iii) above, remain uncollected for a few days, they are dispatched to the permanent addresses of the member(s). This may sometime lead to delay and consequent inconvenience to member(s).

4. In order to facilitate timely payment and to avoid inconvenience, Members are requested to kindly give specific instructions in the form available in the Parliamentary Notice Office about the disbursement of their Salary/TA/DA cheques during the inter-session period for necessary action by the Pay and Accounts Office, Lok Sabha.

Kind co-operation of members is solicited.
