Time for giving notices under Rule 377 for the week commencing
Monday, 04 February, 2019

Members are informed that notices for raising matters under Rule 377 for the week commencing Monday, 4 February, 2019 shall be entertained from 1000 hrs. on Wednesday, 30 January, 2019.

The notices received between 1000 hrs. and 1030 hrs. on Wednesday, 30 January, 2019 shall be deemed to have been received at the same point of time and these shall be balloted to determine the priority of Members. Notices received subsequently shall be arranged in accordance with the date and time of receipt.

A member is permitted to raise not more than one matter during a week.

Attention of members is drawn to provision of Rule 377 which reads as follows :-

“A member who wishes to bring to the notice of the House a matter which is not a point of order, shall give notice in writing to the Secretary-General specifying clearly and precisely the text of the matter to be raised. The Member shall be permitted to raise it only after the Speaker has given the consent and at such time and date as the Speaker may fix.”

Members are, therefore, requested to give the text of the matter alongwith the notice.

Notice which does not contain text shall not be included in the ballot.

The text of the notice should be limited to 150 words.

Further, special attention of members is invited to the provisions of Rule 377A (i) and (v) which state that in order that a notice may be admissible, it shall inter alia satisfy the following conditions :-

377A (i) it shall not refer to a matter which is not primarily the concern of the Government of India;

377A(v) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, imputations, epithets or defamatory statements.

Accordingly, notices attracting the above provisions shall be non-admissible.

Kind cooperation of Members in this regard is solicited.
