Editorial Branch

Correction of Speeches by Members

A computerized copy of every speech delivered or questions asked by Members on the floor of the House and answers given thereto on a day is supplied to them early next morning for confirmation and correction of inaccuracies, if any, which might have occurred in the process of reporting. ONLY minor corrections, namely, those in respect of grammatical errors, misreporting of quotations, figures, names etc. are permissible. Improvement of literary form or altering substance by additions, copious substitution or deletions will NOT be acceptable. Members (including Ministers) are, therefore, requested to make only the said permissible corrections IN INK neatly and legibly to ensure their correct incorporation in the final edited version of Debates.

Members are also requested to return to Editorial Branch a corrected transcript within the time limit indicated on the slip pasted thereon i.e. by 15.00 hours on the second working day. The slip pasted on the transcript should be signed by the member concerned by way of authentication.

Members are also informed that uncorrected debates are available on the Lok Sabha Website <http://loksabha.nic.in/> and they can make use of this facility for taking printouts and making corrections. The speeches so corrected by them may be signed and sent to Editorial Branch as per the time schedule suggested above for incorporating the same in the debates.

It will not be possible to accept corrections suggested beyond said permissible limits or indicated in pencil or not legible or received late.

As the proceedings are put on Lok Sabha Website, which is a time bound procedure, the above provisions will be followed strictly.

Kind co-operation of all members is solicited.
