Process to submit the notice as well as procedure to call the attention of the Minister to a matter of urgent public importance Under Rule 197

Hon'ble members are informed that an e-portal has already been launched to facilitate the members of Lok Sabha to submit their notices online to call the attention of the Minister to any matter of urgent public importance under rule 197 (Calling Attention). However, the printed form is also available in Parliamentary Notice Office to submit the notice to call the attention of Minister. The following process to submit the notice as well as procedure to call the attention of Minister under Rule 197 will be followed: -

- (i) Notices may be submitted either through printed form or online;
- (ii) No member shall give more than two notices for any one sitting;
- (iii) A notice signed by more than one member to call the attention of Minister shall be deemed to have been given by the first signatory only;
- (iv) Notices for a sitting received upto 1000 hours shall be deemed to have been received at 1000 hours on that day and a ballot shall be held to determine the relative priority of each such notice on the same subject. Notices received after 1000 hours shall be deemed to have been given for the next sitting;
- (v) Notices received during a week commencing from its first sitting till 1000 hours on the last day of the week on which the House sits, shall be valid for that week. Notices received after 1000 hours on the last day of the week on which the House sits, shall be valid for the following week;
- (vi) In case of five or less number of members giving notices on same subject that is admitted by the Speaker, their inter se priority shall be determined with reference to the date and time of receipt of Notices;
- (vii) All the notices which have not been taken up during the week for which they have been given, shall lapse at the end of the week unless the Speaker has admitted any of them for a subsequent sitting:

Provided that a notice referred for facts to a Minister shall not lapse till it is finally disposed of by the Speaker.

Kind cooperation of Hon'ble members is solicited.

Process to submit the notice as well as procedure for raising matters of urgent public importance after 'Question Hour', i.e. during 'Zero Hour'.

Hon'ble members may be aware that an e-portal has already been launched to facilitate the members to submit their notices online. So, they can submit their notices online to raise the matters of urgent public importance after Question Hour, i.e. during Zero Hour. However, members can continue to physically hand over the notices of 'Zero Hour' for which printed form is available in Parliamentary Notice Office.

Hon'ble members are informed that pursuant to discussion/consultation with Leaders of Parties in Lok Sabha with Hon'ble Speaker on 28th January, 2018, hereinafter the following would be the revised procedure for raising matters of urgent public importance after Question Hour, i.e. during 'Zero Hour': -

- (i) Notices may be given either through printed form at Parliamentary Notice Office or online by the members from 1700 hours to 1800 hours on the day prior to the day/date on which the members desire to raise their matters in the House.
- (ii) The notices received after 1800 hours shall be treated as time-barred.
- (iii) Twenty matters as per their priority in the ballot will be allowed to be raised on a day. However, 4-5 notices over and above these twenty matters of national/international importance could also be tabled on the same day morning on which the matter is sought to be raised in the House, for which no ballot would be held and may be allowed on the basis of their importance and that too only at the discretion of Hon'ble Speaker.
- (iv) The order in which the matters will be raised, shall be decided by the Hon'ble Speaker at her discretion.
- (v) A matter proposed to be raised should be under the jurisdiction of the Government of India only so that it would be easier for the Minister concerned to respond to it, in case she / he desires to do so.
- (vi) Matter proposed to be raised shall not contain any statement making allegations.

2. Notices for Monday or first working day of a week may be given on Friday or last working day of the previous week between 1700 hours and 1800 hours.

Kind cooperation of Hon'ble members is solicited.

Display of result of ballot regarding matters of urgent public importance after Question Hour, i.e. during 'Zero Hour'

Hon'ble members are informed that the notices on matters of urgent public importance to be raised after Question Hour, i.e. during 'Zero Hour' received between 1700 hours and 1800 hours on the day prior to the day/date on which the members desire to raise their matters in the House shall be balloted in the Parliamentary Notice Office after 1800 hours on the day of receiving of notices. The result of ballot shall immediately, thereafter, be displayed in P.N.O. and Table Office for information of Members.

A copy of the result of ballot shall also be displayed on the Notice Boards in the Outer Lobby of the Lok Sabha Chamber, Parliament House at 1015 hours on the day on which the members are supposed to raise their matters in the House.

The result of the ballot shall also be displayed in scrolled format on the 'updates' column of Lok Sabha website immediately after the ballot process is over.

Notices for first sitting of Sixteenth Session of Sixteenth Lok Sabha for raising Matters of urgent public importance after Question Hour i.e. during 'Zero Hour'

Members are informed that notices for raising matters of urgent public importance after Question Hour i.e. during 'Zero Hour' for 11 December, 2018 (First sitting of 16th Session of 16th Lok Sabha) shall be entertained from 1700 hours to 1800 hours on Monday, 10 December, 2018.

Parliamentary Notice Office

Entry in Parliamentary Notice Office

As members are aware, Parliamentary Notice Office (Room No. 23, Parliament House) receives all notices and communications from members, supplies various forms for the use of members and renders assistance to the members with regard to their Parliamentary work.

At a meeting held by the Speaker with the Leaders of Parties/Groups on 27 March, 1990, it was decided that members may not insist upon taking their guests/friends/relatives inside Parliamentary Notice Office and in any case they may not be permitted to stay there or to use office phones as it leads to avoidable congestion in the room and serious inconvenience to other members in their Parliamentary work.

Members are accordingly requested not to insist upon bringing their guests/friends/relatives inside the Parliamentary Notice Office.

Kind co-operation of members is solicited.

Parliamentary Notice Office

Lockers for use of Members

For the convenience of members, lockers have been provided in the Outer Lobby of Lok Sabha where members may keep their parliamentary papers, etc.

2. As lockers are limited in number, lockers to members will be issued on FIRST COME FIRST SERVED BASIS. Each locker has a lock and key. Members are requested to collect the keys of the lockers from the Parliamentary Notice Office during working hours.

THE DAM SAFETY BILL, 2018, TO BE INTRODUCED IN LOK SABHA

[Copy of D.O. No. 21/2/2014-BM from Shri Nitin Gadkari, Minister of Water Resources, River Development, Ganga Rejuvenation, Road Transport, Highways and Shipping to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed Dam Safety Bill, 2018, recommends to Lok Sabha the consideration of the Bill under article 117(3) of the Constitution of India.

Notice Period for Tabling Cut Motions and Amendments

Notices of cut motions to the Demands for Grants can be tabled immediately after their presentation.

2. Notices of Amendments to a Bill can be tabled after the introduction of the Bill in Lok Sabha, or after a copy of the Bill, as passed by Rajya Sabha, has been laid on the Table of Lok Sabha.

3. The minimum notice period for tabling cut motions and amendments to Bills, Motions and Resolutions under the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha is one day.

4. As cut motions and amendments are circulated to members both in English and Hindi simultaneously, the Rules Committee (Fourth Lok Sabha) considered the question of inadequacy of the period of notice for tabling (i) Amendments to Bills, Resolutions and Motions and (ii) Cut Motions. The Committee decided that members might be requested to table such notices at least two days before the day they are to be taken up in the House.

5. The notices of cut motions and amendments tabled upto 15.15 hours on a day are printed and circulated the same day. The notices tabled after 15.15 hours are deemed to have been tabled on the next working day. These notices are printed and circulated on the next working day if the items to which they relate have not already been disposed of in the House.

6. Accordingly, members are requested to table the notices of Cut Motions and amendments to Bills, Motions and Resolutions at least two days before the day the relevant item to which they relate is to be taken up in the House, but in any case not later than 15.15 hours on the previous day.

Kind co-operation of members is solicited.
